Olga Lillian (Pedri) Groutage went home to be with our Lord on July 15, 2018 in Lakewood Colorado. Olga was born in Rock Springs Wyoming on February 22, 1923 to Attilio Henry and Carmella Inez Pedri.

After Olga graduated from high school, she worked as a payroll clerk for the mines in Rock Springs. She remained at home with her parents and helped them to raise her baby brother, Wayne John Pedri, for a few years until she became married. Olga Lillian Pedri married Clarence Louis Groutage on February 19, 1959.

She became a homemaker after marrying Louis. She loved to cook and take care of Louis and their home. They had no children. She always enjoyed having company come to visit, especially when it was a visit from her sister Florence, brother-in-law Joe, and her niece Bernadine. She also enjoyed taking care of her niece Traci as she was growing up and spending time with her brother, Wayne.

Olga's health began to decline in 2015 when she required 24/7 caregiving in her home. She moved to Lakewood Colorado in November of 2017 to an assisted living facility where she received care until passing.

Olga was preceded in death by her parents, brother Wayne, sister Florence Ruby Motto, and her husband Louis. “ Olga was always a good friend to my mother and a great godmother to me. I will always fondly remember visiting with her at her home and receiving cookies and playing with her piano. We always felt so grown-up to be able to visit with her. My condolences to her family, may you find comfort in knowing she is at peace.

“ I was a caregiver for Olga in her home for almost 2 years. She was such a wonderful lady, always cheerful & always had a smile to give! It was a privilege to have had such a wonderful lady as a part of my life! She was always very strong in her faith! Now she is home safe in God's arms!
